

Do you have a life-ending disease?

Hospice is when there is a prognosis of 6 months or less, but it isn't uncommon for someone to live longer than that on hospice.

Yes

No

Hospice may not be appropriate

Hospice supports people with a prognosis of 6 months or less.

Have you decided to not seek aggressive curative treatment?

Yes

No

Hospice may not be appropriate

Hospice is a form of palliative care, focusing on comfort over curing.

Are there caregivers present to take care of you?

Yes

No

Hospice may not be appropriate

Although we make many visits, hospice is not 24/7 caregiving. A caregiver providing a safe environment is required.
